

Etiquette Classes for Teenagers

Our, Guide to Surviving & Thriving in Teenage years programs teaches the life skills needed as young teenagers transition from leaving the security of their childhood home to the challenges of adulthood

Our Programs Help Prepare Teenagers with The Skills Needed to Live Independently!

How to Present Yourself Class: Topic's Include:

- making a good impression
- learning the social skills necessary to face everyday situations with grace, integrity and confidence
- Table manners, business lunch skills
- Different type of greetings
- Cocktail etiquette
- Networking etiquette
- Topics to talk about at a gathering with Business, political, & public figure individuals
- Proper attire, what to wear- when.
- College - job interview etiquette

How to Care for Yourself Class: Topic's Include:

- making sound financial choices
- finding, furnishing and maintaining a hygienic home, tenant- lease issues
- How to cook, shop and prepare food
- care of clothing
- living amiably

There is comfort & confidence in understanding how to care for oneself. A civilized, gracious and well-prepared Teenager has a better chance of achieving his or her goals., realizing their potential in all aspects of life. Ultimately feeling happy, productive and satisfied!